

NOTES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF CONTRIBUTORS TO
ARCHAEOLOGIA CANTIANA

Deadline for Submission

Contributions should reach the Honorary Editor by the end of September in the year preceding publication.

Length of Item

Papers in Archaeologia Cantiana typically contain 5,000-10,000 words. Significantly longer items are sometimes acceptable; alternatively the Hon. Editor may prefer to agree with the author a reduction in the length of the article. With the setting up of the Society's website www.kentarchaeology.ac, another option for long papers is to publish a Summary or Introduction in Archaeologia Cantiana referenced to the full report on the Internet.

The Submitted Text

The text must be submitted in electronic form in Word – as an email attachment or on a CD.

Where the text needs to be italicised, indicate either by underlining or type as such.

Indicate quoted material clearly.

Illustrations and Photographs

The image area of a page of Archaeologia Cantiana is 6.7 x 4.2in. (170 x 105mm). Take into account the depth of the caption. Please provide a sequential list of illustrations/photographs together with the captions required.

Line illustrations - a clear original in black ink on white paper/drawing film is ideal
- good quality photocopies are acceptable
- provide an imperial/metric scale and north point, as appropriate

Photographs - good quality originals with adequate contrast, unmounted
- colour prints/transparencies can be reproduced in b/w

Digital illustrations Both line illustrations and photographs can also be submitted on disk as TIFF or JPEG files. If the original is in colour the author should have it changed to greyscales. TIFF line illustrations should be presented at 1200 dpi, if possible; JPEG lineart at 600 dpi; photographs at 300 dpi. If it is not possible to save lineart images from drawing programmes, good quality greyscale line images can be produced as PDF or EPS files at 600 dpi.

Tables

Bear in mind the size limits of the page (see above) in designing your table(s). Tables which can be presented in portrait are preferred. Avoid over-complexity.

Some points on House Style

Please do not use the first person.

Tenth century, not 10th century; dates in the form 12 November 1432; July 1675:
Augustine landed AD 597 (although sixth century AD), Caesar in 55 BC.

Per cent should be spelled out.

Compass points to appear in full: e.g. south-west, north-eastward.

Old money set out as, for example, £5 14s. 9d.

Offprints

All contributors of main articles are supplied with ten offprints of their paper, gratis. (Five only for short items or 'Notes'.) If a larger number is required, for which a charge is made, authors will be invited to order these at the proof stage. Offprints can only be supplied to authors overseas if payment can be arranged by sterling cheques.

Copyright

Authors should identify the owner(s) of any copyright material (textual or illustrative) contained within articles offered for publication; and are responsible for obtaining the appropriate permission(s).