* The park and residence of the Dalison family, called HAMPTONS, in West Peckham and Wrotham, takes its name from William Hampton, citizen of London, although he possessed the site for less than sixteen years. That gentleman purchased the reversion of a portion of the estate in the nineteenth year of King Edward IV. Among the Dalison papers there is one which testifies that, on the 5th of June 1479, John Wolverych junior, and John Terry, tanner, of Wrotham, as feoffees of the lands of John Terry senior, of Roghey in Wrotham, deliver to John Terry senior, Teryestement in Roghey for the term of his life and for one year more, after which it shall remain to William Hampton, citizen and powchemaker of London, if William Hampton shall pay to Terry or his heirs, in Wrotham Church, the sum of £18 13s. 4d., by half-yearly instalments of 13s. 4d. each at Michaelmas and Easter.

Et tenet unam peciam terræ vocatam Bowryfeld et jacet ad Sore-londs versus South, West, North, et East.

Et tenet unam peciam terræ vocatam Willotts jacentem supra mansum HENRICI MONK, ad terram ejusdem JOHANNIS TERRY ibidem, tentam de manerio de Sore, versus North; ad regiam viam, ducentem a Roghhey-strete usque Le Herst, versus South; ad Communem ibidem vocatum Le Herst versus East; ad terram MICHAELIS WARYN versus West; et ad terram JOHANNIS COOLYN versus South et East; et inde Dominus per annum vij<sup>s</sup> viij<sup>d</sup> ob. unde predicti viij<sup>d</sup> per annum pro predicta pecia terræ vocata Suthfyld nuper Jacobi Dyne. Et debet pro messione frumenti per annum: j roda ix pedes dimidium pretio iiiij<sup>d</sup>.

Idem WILLELMUS HAMPTON tenet messuagium et gardinum nuper JOHANNIS WOLVERYCH, tanner, & jacentes ad regiam viam versus West; ad terram ROBERTI MELLER vocatam Symcynnggys versus North; ad terram NICHOLAI WOLVERYCH versus South & East; et ad venellam ibidem vocatam Forstal-lane versus South.

Et tenet duas pecias terræ simul jacentes Wolverychystannerscroft et jacentes ad terram NICHOLAI WOLVERYCH versus South et West; ad terram vocatam Whytc-town versus South et East; et ad terram et ad terram (sic) heredis JACOBI DYNE ibidem versus South; et Domino per annum de redditu xx<sup>d</sup>. Et debet pro messione de j roda frumenti per annum ij<sup>d</sup> ob.

Summa totalis redditus istius bille per annum xj<sup>d</sup> ob.

Summa messionis per annum xij<sup>d</sup> ob.

II.

It would seem that WILLIAM HAMPTON'S lands in West Peckham and Wrotham passed into the possession of JOHN TUTTESHAM, gentleman, during the years 1495-6.

Among the Dalison muniments there is a deed of feofment dated 18 Dec. 1495 (11 Hen. VII.), whereby LAURENCE AYLMEY, citizen and draper of London, WILLIAM SOWTER of West Peckham, and ROBERT TURKE of Wrotham enfeof JOHN TUTSAM of West Peckham, gentleman, GEORGE NEVELL, knight, Lord of Burgeuenny, NICHOLAS TYTCHEBORNE, gentleman, REGINALD PECKHAM, gentleman, and RICHARD BAKER, yeoman, in a messuage and 3 pieces of land (Kechynfeld, Meldrede, and Melfeld), containing 18 acres, abutting on the king's highway from Oxynhothis Myll towards le Herst, E. and S., to the millstream W., and to lands lately belonging to WILLIAM HAMPTON senior, formerly citizen and powchemaker of London, deceased, and to lands of JOHN COLYN and JOHN BROKE, N. Also 2 other pieces of land on the Denne of Oxynhothe in West Peckham called Dollys land and Petfeld, containing about 9 acres. Also Forde Mede, containing 7 acres, which WILLIAM HAMPTON, LAURENCE AYLMEYER, WILLIAM SOWTER, and ROBERT TURKE held conjointly of the gift and concession of HUGH TUNBREGGE, lately of West Peckham.

III.

Another of the Dalison Charters, dated 25 March, 11 Henry VII. (1495-6), is a grant made by ROBERT, son and heir of deceased JOHN, COLYN of Wrotham, to JOHN TUTTESHAM, gentleman, WILLIAM CLAYSER, WILLIAM TURKE of Mereworth, and JOHN BENET of Wrotham, of 3 pieces of land, lying together in the borough of Roughway in Wrotham, called Seynt Marysland, Rysscrocft, and Holecroft, containing 6 acres, abutting to a lane which leads to JOHN TUTTESHAM'S Hothismede, North; to the land of THOMAS HACCHE, the land late WILLIAM HAMPTON'S now JOHN TUTTESHAM'S, and to Blakelands, East; to land lately WILLIAM HAMPTON'S but now JOHN TUTTESHAM'S, West, and to lands of WILLIAM A FEN and of JOHN BROKE, South-east. These three pieces of land formed parcel of the tenement of Owenothe.

IV.

5th May, 17 Henry VIII. (1525). BOLEYN to TOTESHAM.

JOHN BOLEYN of Dartford, son and sole heir of WILLIAM BOLEYN by his wife MARGARET WAREYN, grants to RICHARD TOTESHAM of West Peckham a messuage, garden, and 2 crofts, called le Prynces, containing 4 acres, in the borgh of Owenothe, in West Peckham, lately belonging to MICHAEL WAREYN; and all lands in Shipborne and Wrotham formerly belonging to WILLIAM BOLEYN and MARGARET his wife, or to RICHARD BOLEYN "my brother," or to MICHAEL WAREYN and ALICE his wife.

V.

11 Aug. 4 Jac. I. (1606). Oxenhoth; from TUTTESHAM to STANLEY.

A marriage settlement recites that Oxenhoth was purchased from ANTHONY TUTTESHAM of Nordiham in Sussex, by JOHN STANLEY,* of Oxenhoth in West Peckham, who married DOROTHY TUTTESHAM. It states that this parcel of lands called Oxenhoth contains 30 acres in West Peckham and 20 acres in Wrotham. Whereof one moiety is settled (as dowry in case of widowhood) upon DOROTHY [née TUTTESHAM] wife of John Stanley, and the other moiety in similar dowry upon MARGERY LEYSTON of Gravesend, widow, when she became the wife of THOMAS STANLEY, eldest son of JOHN STANLEY.

* JOHN STANLEY'S eldest son, THOMAS, had no issue by his first wife Margery Leyston, widow; but marrying, in 1633, Ann daughter of Captain Long, he had by her his only daughter and heir Frances, born in 1635, who married Maximilian Dalison, in or about 1655-6.

VI.

17 December 1650, Lease of Hampton's, granted by THOMAS STANLEY to ELIZABETH DALYSON, widow, and MAXIMILIAN her only son.

THOMAS STANLEY lets, for a term of years, to ELIZABETH DALYSON* of Hamptons in West Peckham, widow, and Maximilian Dalyson her only son, at an annual rent of £40 per annum, that capital messuage called by the name of Hamptons, with all its barns, stables, gardens, orchards, and 14 pieces of land† (meadow, pasture, and arable) called Kitchenfield, Millfield, Mildrede, the Strake, Pondbrooke, Calvescroft, Upper Horsleas, Lower Horsleas; and 2 pieces called Upper Highlands, together with all fishponds, fishing, etcetera. It is agreed, however, that THOMAS STANLEY shall have access to Pondbrooke meadow, and shall for two years next coming retain one room called the Chestloft, and a little closet within the kitchen chamber, with full right of ingress and egress to lay up, take, and carry away any of his goods or household stuff. Dated at the now dwelling-house of THOMAS STANLEY in Plaxtol (subsequently called Hubbles) and witnessed by JOHN KERRIL, MARY DALYSON, SARAH WAYNMAN, and FRANCES DALYSON.

OVERTURES OF MARRIAGE, 1649-50.

From the deposition of Thomas Stanley, Esq., of West Peckham, made in 1667, in course of a Chancery Suit, the following curious extract is made:—

“This defendant saith that, in or about July 1649, there was an overture of a marriage made, by M<sup>r</sup> Barnabas Walsall‡ (then maior of Rochester and tenant to the said Elizabeth Dalyson, as she was Guardian to the other defendant, Maximilian Dalyson her sonn) to be had & made, betwene the said Max. Dalyson and Frances, this defendant's only daughter and heire apparent; to which purpose y<sup>e</sup> said Walsall did write a letter to this defendant, dated 19 July 1649, wherein (inter alia) are these words:—‘while my landlady M<sup>rs</sup> Dalyson was at my house, there was an overture of a match, betwene her only son and your only daughter, my cousen Frances. He is a pretty young Gent., an Esq<sup>re</sup> by birth, about 16 yeres of age; hath £400 a yere lands. Shee requires only £1000 to preferr his 2 sisters in mariage. I am confident you will be much taken with y<sup>e</sup> mother & y<sup>e</sup> son.’ Also in another letter, dated 15 November following, are these words:—‘I am now requested by M<sup>rs</sup> Dalyson to signifie her desire of a match betwene her son and your daughter; the good

* Elizabeth, daughter of Sir James Oxenden of Dean, married William Dalison of Halling (eldest son of Sir Maximilian Dalison by his second wife Mary Spencer), who was born in 1609 and died in May 1642. She resided at the Bishop's Place, Halling, until she removed to Hamptons.

† A memorandum states that the total amounted to 62 acres; whereof 21 were in Wrotham, and 41 in West Peckham.

‡ Mr. Walsall married Audrey Stanley, sister-in-law of the deponent Thomas Stanley. She was the widow of William Stanley who died in 1621.

gentlewoman (y<sup>e</sup> best of many thousand) is so desirous of it. Shee may perhaps desire some money to advance her daughters mariages.' And this defendant further saith that, shortly after, y<sup>e</sup> said Eliz. Dalyson together with her said son came to this defendants house to treat about y<sup>e</sup> match intimated as aforesaid. And a treaty was had accordingly, wherein (in y<sup>e</sup> first place) the said Elizabeth demanded a thousand pounds, to be paid unto her for the porcions of her two daughters, Mary & Margaret. Wherupon, this defendant (though unwilling that the said Max. Dalyson her son should part with so much of his wife's porcion, yet considering that his said 2 sisters had noe porcions left them by their ffather) did consent & agree that y<sup>e</sup> said £1000 should be paid to y<sup>e</sup> said Elizabeth, to make porcions for her said 2 daughters. Which was so paid accordingly by him, this defendant, for the use and behoofe of y<sup>e</sup> said Max. Dalyson, to whom y<sup>e</sup> said £1000 did absolutely belong (it being part of his wife's mariage porcion). To the payment of y<sup>e</sup> said £1000, there were Articles of Agreement indented, dated 9 February 164<sup>9</sup>/<sub>10</sub>."
