

JOINT STUDY DAY BY THE UNIVERSITY OF KENT
WITH THE COUNCIL FOR KENTISH ARCHAEOLOGY AND THE KENT ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

If the Kaiser Should Come: Defending Kent and the South-east During the Great War

Saturday, 14th October 2017

Rutherford College, University of Kent at Canterbury CT2 7NX

Programme

The day will run from 2.00 – 5.00 pm, with a break for tea, presentation of awards and a raffle.

Displays and publications on aspects of the history and archaeology of Kent will be on sale.

Speakers

Welcome and Opening Address

Defence on Land	Peter Kendall, Historic England
Defence at Sea	Professor Andrew Lambert, King's College, London
Air Defence	Victor Smith, Historic Defences Committee, Kent Archaeological Society
Emergency Planning for Invasion	Simon Mason, Heritage Conservation Group, Kent County Council

Tickets are £10 each, or free for Friends of the CKA, KAR subscribers and for members of the KAS.

Please use the booking form below and enclose a SAE.

Parking is available on the university campus. Buses to the university run from close to Canterbury East railway station and, not far away, from Canterbury Bus Station.

---

If the Kaiser Should Come, Saturday 14th October 2017 – Booking Form

Number of tickets at £10:

Number of free tickets:

Name and address for ticket(s):

Tel No

Email (BLOCK CAPITALS PLEASE)

Tickets £10 each (Free for Friends of the CKA, KAR subscribers and KAS members).

Please make cheques payable to CKA and send with this tear-off slip to: CKA, 7 Sandy Ridge, Borough Green, Kent TN15 8HP.

Please enclose a SAE