Transcriber's notes	The document is a very comprehensive account of the estate of Edward Hirst who was the vicar of Linsted and Teynham from 1612 to 1618. The account deals with credits due to and the claims made on the estate related to many legal suits against creditors and the upbringing and education of four orphaned children. The costs for the children shows the difference in education between boys and girls. The orphaned children are "placed out" to be boarded, fed, clothed and educated at the expence³ of the deceased's estate. One of the sons is placed with an apothecary in London and then became ill, he was then apprenticed to a scrivener again in London until he absconded and ran away to sea "towards the East Indies". The costs of clothing, shoes, books, ink, pens, satchells, gloves, bows and arrows, diet and "other necessarys" for the children are also included.
