This is a post-conquest form that occurs in grog as well as Roman fabrics, on the fringes of the main area of the use of grog. Irchester (Hall & Nickerson 1967, Ciii) has it in shell (nos.48, 66).

See also D1-3 for the bowl form, and E3-3 for cups.

1 Richborough I, pit 14, no.6 (has the long neck of B1-4).
2 Bletchley, Saffron Gardens, 37, 44, 47.
3 Kempston, Simeo 1973 no.42: Roman.
4 Felmersham, no.5.
B1-5: B1 type jars with groove around widest part of body.